

For immediate release December 6, 2011

Towner Management Congratulates Jim Caldwell for DC Honor

Burlington, VT—G. James Caldwell, CEO and president of Caring Communities reciprocal Risk Retention Group, recently received an honor for his work in the industry by the District of Columbia Captive Insurance Council.

The risk retention group is a client of The Towner Management Group.

Caring Communities is a not-for-profit organization of senior housing community care and service providers. It is the leading provider of general, professional and excess liability insurance, risk management and education to not-for-profit, mission-based senior housing and services providers. The reciprocal risk retention group is registered in 50 states and is rated A- (Excellent) by A.M. Best.

"From his founding of Caring Communities, Jim has shown the vision and discipline that make his RRG one of the best run in the country," says Guy Ragosta, CEO and managing partner of The Towner Management Group's U.S. operations. "Jim's talents are evident to anyone who knows him, so the CIC's award is just another affirmation of Jim's leadership abilities."

About Towner Management

Contact us to learn how The Towner Management Group (TMG) can help your RRG or captive meet its individual risk challenges. Towner Management is an independent, full-service captive insurance and international business entity management company with a multi-domicile reach, dedicated to providing alternative risk solutions to meet diverse needs.