

For immediate release, May 7, 2010

TMG's Crouse Named to NRRRA Government Affairs Committee

Burlington, VT—Len Crouse, a principal with The Towner Management Group (TMG), was named to the Government Affairs Committee of the National Risk Retention Association. NRRRA is the voice of RRGs, advocating for members on the state and federal levels. "The primary function of NRRRA is to provide a high level of advocacy on behalf of its members, and the work of the Government Affairs Committee is the primary reason NRRRA exists," says Joe Deems, an attorney with Deems Law Offices in Encino, California, and chairman of the committee. "The committee includes two dozen of the most knowledgeable people in the industry, and we're absolutely delighted Len has joined our group on behalf of Towner Management. With Len's years of experience regulating captives and dealing with the NAIC, he will be a true asset." "NRRRA is the most effective advocate RRGs have, and I hope to continue that tradition," says Crouse, a pioneer in the captive insurance industry. "Whether dealing with modernizing the Risk Retention Act of 1986 or communicating with domicile regulators, NRRRA is always there for its members." To learn more about how regulatory issues can affect your RRG or captive, contact Len or another TMG expert at the phone numbers or email addresses below.