

For immediate release September 30, 2011

Visit Towner Management Executives at the NRRRA Conference

Burlington, VT— Christopher J.N. Towner, Guy Ragosta and Len Crouse will represent The Towner Management Group (TMG) at the National Risk Retention Association's 23rd Annual Conference, which will be held October 5-7 at the Risk Carlton Pentagon City in Washington, D.C.

Towner, founding chairperson of TMG, celebrating its 20th anniversary this year, will be joined by Ragosta, CEO and Partner of Towner Management's U.S. operations, and Crouse, who is Partner. Crouse, one of the most respected names in risk retention group circles, was a long-time Vermont captive insurance regulator and currently is a member of NRRRA's Government Affairs Committee.

The conference's theme, RRGs in the 21st Century, is particularly timely this year as RRG formations tick up while the economy struggles to emerge from the recession and RRGs continue to fight against discriminatory practices by some states. Earlier this year, a bill was introduced in the U.S. House of Representatives to provide a federal dispute resolution mechanism when regulators stop RRGs in good standing with their home domiciles from writing business in their states.

Over three days, attendees will have a schedule full of sessions dealing with everything from regulation to ratings and reinsurance.

The Towner Management executives look forward to seeing old friends and making new ones.

To learn more about how the independent professionals at Towner Management can help you and your RRG meet your unique risk financing needs, catch up with us at the conference or contact us via the information provided below.