

For immediate release June 7, 2011

TMG's Crouse Named Associate with Hanover Stone Partners

Burlington, VT—The Towner Management Group (TMG) is proud to announce that Len Crouse, who continues with TMG as a Partner, has been named concurrently a senior advisor and associate for Hanover Stone Partners, LLC.

Crouse is also a member of the Government Affairs Committee of the National Risk Retention Association and a former, long-time Deputy Commissioner of Captive Insurance for Vermont's Department of Insurance.

"During Len's tenure, Vermont's captive insurance legislation became a model for other states," says John Kelly, founder of and Managing Partner for Hanover Stone Partners. "We collaborate only with the best in the business to provide a comprehensive solution for our clients' risk needs, and Len and Towner Management are among the best."

"It's natural that John and his company would recognize Len's expertise and vast experience working with captives," adds Guy Ragosta, CEO and Partner of TMG, who, with TMG's consulting practice leader and U.S. Managing Partner Tom Stokes, is also an associate with Hanover Stone. "We all look forward to what we are certain will be a mutually beneficial relationship."

Hanover Stone Partners is the first network of leading risk management consultants, specialized risk management services firms, and specialty brokers. Hanover Stone Partners works with partner companies, such as TMG, and individuals who excel in specific disciplines. The firm assembles multi-disciplinary, cross-industry teams that work collaboratively to help clients identify, analyze, manage and finance organizational risk.

To learn more about Hanover Stone and its services, please email info@hanoverstonepartners.com. To learn more about TMG, please contact us through the information provided below.